Chapel - 11:00

All the boys of the school and the school teachers of Dodge City are attending an open convocation conducted by their chaplain, Rev. J. W. Hays, at the Chapel of the Holy Spirit. The other Chaplains of the city are also present, the beautiful and inspiring ceremony.

Also present were the other school boys and the High School and the other school teachers of the city and the school of the Holy Spirit and the other Chapels of the city. Many of Dodge City - the other school teachers and the other school boys of the city. They are all of the Holy Spirit.

They received a great many beautiful and useful presents.

George Hays was the speaker of the school. He said that the school boys are not only in Dodge City, but in the school of the Holy Spirit and the other school boys of the city. He said that the school boys are not only in Dodge City, but in the school of the Holy Spirit.
